

Aiming for Higher Things

These are examples of some of the things that you could do to achieve credits. If you have any other ideas remember to ask to see if they could count.

	<h3>Aiming for Higher Things.</h3>
Learning Strengths	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ambition • Curiosity • Focus • Flexibility
Achievements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Receiving 3 headteacher stickers in a year • Receiving 5 hot chocolate nominations • Being presented with a certificate in Friday's celebration assembly • Impeccable behavioural choices and representing the impeccably on school trips • Bringing in high quality topic/science homework • Receiving 2 teacher-praise postcards sent home • Receiving 10 silver/gold stickers in one subject • Gaining a governors' award • Have above 97% attendance for the year • No lates for half a term • Achieving more than 3000 points on Mathletics in a week • Achieving more than 70 points on accelerated reader
External Achievements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Visiting and joining a local library • Earning an award from a local library's competition • Entering an external competition e.g. poetry, story writing etc • Visiting a careers fair or an open day at a place of employment (police station, university, or secondary school) • Carrying out and bringing in homework/research, that has not been set by the class teacher (at least 2 times) • Visiting a museum or historic site e.g. an English Heritage/National Trust site, castle, stately home, a cathedral/old church etc) • Carry out a STEM (science, technology, engineering and maths) project – Lots of ideas online for these. • Visit historic/famous sites in another city or country e.g. London, Bath, Edinburgh